TEXAS HIGH SCHOOL

REPORTERS CONFERENCE

Miss Jesselyn Box of Crockett, 1966 Miss TEXAS HIGH, is crowned by Miss Patricia Brown of Bryan, 1965 winner. Seven-Up Company officials (above) co-sponsored the event.

APRIL 7-8, PRAIRIE VIEW A&M COLLEGE

THE MISS TEXAS TEEN PAGEANT is the new name for the six year old Miss TEXAS HIGH event which has gained National popularity. The name has been changed to offer a broader base for sponsorship of contestants. Girls may now enter the contest as representatives of their high school, church, civic or social club, or on her own initiative. Age limits include 16-19 years, in grades 10-12.

Contestants are judged on the basis of Personality, Poise, Talent, Attractiveness and Charm. Several Scholarships and prizes are awarded to the winners and runners-up and in several categories. Ten finalists are selected to appear on The Pageant program. Contestants participate in a Talent Revue, Style Show, Training Sessions, various social activities and the closing pageant.

A filing fee of $10.00 covers all cost.

THE REPORTERS CONFERENCE will feature trophies for the best all-around High School Journalism program. The best School newspaper, yearbook, and a special award to an outstanding student publication advisor. Students who serve as reporters, editors, and in various positions on the high school newspaper, radio or yearbook staff, and those interested in learning about reporting and public relations will enjoy the features and informal seminars planned for the conferences. Outstanding newsmen, public relations, specialists, photographers, radio and TV personnel will serve as speakers and resource persons.

Registration fee is $1.00.

BOTH EVENTS SPONSORED BY PRAIRIE VIEW'S
STUDENT PRESS CLUB, WOMEN'S COUNCIL
AND ALPHA PHI ALPHA FRATERNITY
